GEIDEL JURY MAKING UP ITS VERDICT

STEAMER SAVES CREWAS SCHOONER GOES DOWN

"Circulation Books Open to All."

FIRE HEAD SAYS

Complaint as Result of

Wells-Brown Fight.

the Corporation Counsel to-day a complaint against "Pat" Powers, promote of the Madison Square Athletic Club which held the Wells-Brown fight at the Madison Square Garden last night

The complaint charges Powers with violating the rules in regard to keeping the aisles clear by having more than three thousand persons standing at last

Battalion Chief James Crawley and

Captain James Dooin were sent to the Garden with a squad of firemen to take observations. They counted three thousand persons standing. Chief Crawley timed the exit of the ten thousand per that it took only seven minutes to empty

In reply to the complaint which was Athletic Club of Nos. 1890-1898 Park ave nue, Brown's Athletic Club of Nos. 115-

117 West Twenty-third street and the

Madison Athlette Club of No. 2478 Sec-

Mayor, Commissioner Waldo said: "The ter of State regulation. There have been no compiaints of disorder outside

KILLED SEVENTEEN

and Suburbs Increased by so serious as at first believed.

situations inside a club-house.

e provided for all.

night's bout.

cotorlo.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

Co. (The New York World).

14 PAGES

GOES TO THE JURY; QUICK VERDICT IS EXPECTED

Seventeen-Year-Old Youth in YOUNGEST TRIED FOR Tears as Counsel Pleads for His Life.

ASSAILS HOTEL VICTIM.

Prosecutor Nott in Summing Up Vigorously Defends Character of Broker Jackson.

eld Paul Geldel, on trial for the murder of William H. Jackson, retired to consider its verdict at 3.20 o'clock this afternoon. Prosecution and defense united undue delay on the part of the jurors a the defense and the prosecution Judge Crain charged the ry carefully and a ongth. He spent considerable time up murder in the first degree, murder i EXPLAINS THE LAW IN RELA-TION TO A SECOND FELONY. request of Assistant District-Nott Judge Crain emphasized mitted by one in the commission of a at the suggestion of Mr. Gray or the defense, Judge Crain explained constitutes a felony as applicable the jury found that Geldel killed Mr. Jackson while engaged in a robbery, and if the article or articles stolen were valued at more than $35, the robbers constituted a felony. At the opening of court Mr. Gray asked for the striking out of the sothe effort. The ground for asking the The motion was denied.

Mr. Gray asked that Mrs. Geldel be admitted to hear his summing up. "The mother of the defendant" ob-served Judge Crain with great calmness. Mr

ONLY WOMAN IN COURT. Mrs. Geldel was seated in the middle block chase. alsle of the back part of the courtroom. When arraigned before Magistrate in its lower cadences. He feelingly described the ioneliness of the little boy seeking the companion-ship of friends; told now the kindliness of Mr. Jackson appealed to him; told but she refused to go to the hospital. how the money flashed by Mr. Jackson in giving tips and the offer of money help for his mother affected the weak boy's imagination. Mr. Gray said that Harriman's Nephew Has Narrow liscaped the Stationary.

THIEVES GET $500 ON

Policemen.

Thieves made a dariux raid on the window display of 14. Heavy at Ne. 52 Fulton street. Brooklyn some time better 1.50 o'clock this morning and took 1500 worth of small atticles from under the cases of the policemen on stationary pasts and the parciuman on the beat. The treft was dispovered to-day the making was found in the ineavy plate glass abandoned their summer camp for window.

In their basic the Oleves left $2,000 days stay. Their chauffeur was boundworth of lewelry, Healy has a night for Richmond Hill, L. I., the family's display in his window that lasts until the was released when arraigned it o'clock, when the window lights automatically go out. A big are light automatically go out. A big are them on the street illuminates the store-freet thoroughly. The broken window was discovered by Policeman George Brennan of the Adams street station. Easter City, Swanses,

17-YEAR-OLD BOY.

MURDER IN STATE.

Says He Was Driven to Crime by Hunger.

called "police confessions" in which the years old, left her home at No. 507 Her with their first authentic informaseventeen-year-old belilion swore to Pacific street, Brooklyn, this afternoon iton was in the employ of the Govhaving gone to old Mr. Jackson's rooms on a shopping expedition. She got off ernment. to rob him and to having killed him in a Fifth avenue trolley car at Atlantic avenue and Nevins street and had hard- old, will be given a hearing before Comtaken a dozen steps from the corner when a man struck her between the ing. Since his arrest he has made no eyes. As she fell he snatched her purse statement. containing $20 and jewels worth about

"has the same right to be present here the man fled, but several passers-by of the Appraisers' Stores. It was only as any other properly interested memhad seen the assault and started in ber of the public"

MOTHER OF THE PRISONER THE

of the pursuers attracted Policeman Gill

of the pursuers attracted Policeman Gill

of the pursuers attracted started in pursuers attracted Policeman Gill of the pursuers attracted policeman Gill who caught the fugitive after a five stick pins and other valuables in the

She was the only woman in the court. Doley in Adams street Court the pris-Mr. Gray's summing up was com-oner said he was Thomas Reed. He demented upon as all that had been ex- clared that he never committed a crime pected of him. His oratory was as fine-before; that he had been driven to the ly modulated as ever tame from the assault by hunger. He said he had eat-state of Georgia, thunderous and crash-en no food for several days. He was ing in denunciation, thrilling in pathos held in $2,000 ball for further examin-

BANKER'S AUTO SMASHED.

Escape in Speeding Car

(Special to The Evening World). SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Aug. 21 .- At BROOKLYN'S BROADWAY. banker and broker, at No. 40 Wall street Cut Hole in Store Window and liscaped the Stationary.

New York, and a nepaew of the late L. H. Harriman, when making the turninto State street at thirty-five miles as found in the heavy plate glass abandoned their summer camp for which they paid $1,000 after only ten

WOMAN TRAPPED

Federal Agents Say Prin Stole $350 Ring Owned by Mrs. J. P. Morgan.

LOSS MAY BE $50,000.

Four Years of Systematic Stealing in the Government Stores.

itealing, during which he is said to ave completely outwitted the cleverest Sovernment detectives, James Prin suc mbed to the charms of a woman and tion on a number of counts that may land him in the Penitentlary for a score of years.

Appraiser's stores, is charged specifically with the theft of a diamond and ruby ring valued at $350, belonging to Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, and quantities local office of the Department to which licenses had been granted. that many valuable articles have been stolen from the Watt street, yesterday,

It appears, as far as could be cleaned from the authorities, that Prin's fondness for other women than his wife ond avenue. Captured After Long Chase, was responsible for his downfall. Suswas first directed toward him of men despatched to investigate when it became known that he had safety in case of fire. nade valuable presents to several Mr. Whitney nor F. W. Bird, the Ap-Mr. Whitney nor F. W. Bird, the Appraisor of the Port, would admit that Mayor may have something to say represent the woman who furnished the authorities for the borne at No. 2016. The strongest card yet shown in the garding more rigid management of defense of Henry Clay Beattle ir., on across the street and returned to his > Prin, who is about thirty-five years missioner Alexander to-morrow morn, of the citb. We have no control of The theft of the ring belonging to Mrs. Morgan dates back to October, Mrs. Reinberg fell into the gutter as 1907, soon after Prin entered the employ consignment, but none of those was disturbed.

Besides recovering considerable elry that is supposed to have been taken by Prin, the detectives have found silks. laces, woollens and other articles. In same cases, it is said, Prin sold the goods he took, but in the majority of in-

Prin's duty at the Appraisers' Stores was to unpack and pack merchand sent there for inspection on arriv foreign countries. His scheme, take articles from different co nents, secrete them about his person nd deposit a slip in the consignment

Just who the woman is that trapped a force engaged in cleaning up debris as not been disclosed by the officials will reach a million dollars. samed she is young and attractive and Lexington which stranded at the mouth secret until yesterday, when he told E. sed her charms in bringing about Prins of the Editio on Monday, was reported M. Smith, counsel for the defense.

LOCAL BALL GAMES OFF.

POLO GROUNDS, N. Y., Aug. 21.- staple cotton has been destroyed. Five double header scheduled for to-day elween the Gunts and St. Louis was islands, according to belated storm re-

Stateroom reservations and tickets ris too could be the first of the could be the c

BEATTIE'S FATHER TESTIFIES FOR SON AISLES OF GARDEN AT MURDER TRIAL

Commissioner Johnson Files Hush in Court as Aged Man Relate How Prisoner Told Him of Beulah Binford.

Fire Commissioner Johnson filed with PAUL BEATTIE SCORED.

Contradicted and Veracity Attacked - Henry Beattie on Stand To-Morrow

A bush fell over the little Chesterfield rt-room as the elver-haired father men who will decide his son's fate. In a low voice the father gave a served on him. Powers replied that he tory of his family, the death of his wife and the age of his sons and daughters he had sold tickets to the surplus 3,000 He said Henry was sixteen years old he did not attempt to explain. He when his mother died, and that since promised that in the future seats would that time he had "tried to be both father and mother" to the boy. While his father sat in the witness chair the accused youth sat with drawn In compliance with a request of Com-missioner Johnson, James E. Sullivan, chair the accused youth sat with drawn president of the Boxing Commission, face and staring eyes, his head bowed low over te desk before him.

"Did you know of Henry's relations

"Yes," almost whispered the old man

No. 340 West Forty-fourth street, Atlantic Athletic Association of No. 39
Maple place, Rocksway Beach; Long Acre Athletic Association of No. 158-160
West Twenty-ninth street, New Polo SON TOLD HIM OF B SON TOLD HIM OF BINFORD GIRL.

"How did you find it out? After a legal argument, the fathe over to Fire Chief Kenion and a squad Eenry. He told me all This reply was given in a voice

Police Commissioner Walds conferred scarcely audible to the jury which women. The Government agents then set a trap for him. However, neither Mr. Whitney nor F. W. Bird, the Ap-clubs. Following his talk with the trial for the murder of his wife, was wagon for a quart bottle he was to played to-day. A mysterious witness surprised the prosecution with the dec- erty avenue and Cleveland street. killing Paul Beattle was at his post as a rain, watching him. The instant Fisher bridge watchman, carrying a single-bar- jumped from the wagon to the siderelied shotgun. Paul Beattle had in- walk with the bottle his right sisted that he gave the gun to his cousin touched a wire dangling from a tele-Henry, the accused man, on Saturday phone post. It knocked him over on his charge that he acted as a "fence" for of Charleston. Then heavy squalls be-the camp of the prosecution was Ernest and his clothes began to smoke.

IN TERRIFIC SWEEP "I was driving over the bridge in my stances he gave freely to his friends Death Toll and Damage in City house where they keep concrete. He held charred, all the hair was burned from

Yesterday Paul Beattle fiatly denied rin, or what her mode of working was, found additional bodies. The damage having the gun on the bridge on that WICKERSHAM WON'T TELL day. Under cross-examination Neblitt The Merchants' and Miners' liner declared he had kept his information to have been floated to-day. Reports from surrounding countles indicate that the entire crop of sea-island and longstarte crop of sea-island and longstarte crop of has been destroyed.

Why didn't you tell of it before?

*Started Prosecutor Wendenburg on cross oxamination. "Didn't think it was of much importance until Paul Beattie destaple cotton has been destroyed.

Only two lives were lost on exposed "But did you not te "But did you not tell Mr. Smith yes-postponed on account of the inciement weather. As these were the last games the claim of the Rajans, on home tounds, the Giants will play them off the Roads on the islands are important of the principal features of Paul's test. a their next visit to St. Louis. The passable because of washed-out bridges timony, upon which the prosecution has cookiyn-clineinnati double-header was and fallen trees. Damage at the fale founded its whole case, will be contra-of Palms resort, it is learned, was not dicted. In a brief cross examination Special Prosecutor Wendenburg was un-In this city conditions approximate able to shake Niblitt in the slightest normal. Lighting and power service is degree. being extended and sanitary measures. After springing this sensation the defense settled down to examine half a

TO TELL TRUTH

31, 1911.

BEULAH

LIVE WIRE, LOOSE ALL NIGHT, KILLS YOUNG MILKMAN

Hair Burned Off and Right Arm Charred When Hand Hits Charged Light Cable

street. Brooklyn, instantly killed Stanley Fisher, aged twenty-four, driver of a wagon of the Eagle Milk Company, Ozone Park, at 6 o'clock this morning. Fisher lived in Old South road, Ozone leave in Max Ulimans' saloon at Lib-Ullman stood at the door out of the back, the bottle of milk shattering be- a partnership of burgiars, composed of gan burtling out of the northeast sky, Fisher was killed instantly, accordbuggy," said Noblitt. "I saw Paul Beat- ing to Dr. Renner, of the Bradford tle standing in the doorway of a little Street Hospital. His right arm was the gun in his hand and it was broken his head and his clothing was another the gun in his hand and it was broken his head and his clothing was cooked in copen. He shut it up when he saw me burned off. His flesh was cooked in to inspect a new haul. Then the popular to inspect a new haul. Then the popular to inspect a new haul. Then the popular to inspect a new haul it inside the door. Then he spots.

According to the police, the wire was Guarding against the contingency that At six o'clock Sunday evening the contingency that the

ABOUT STEEL TRUST CASE.

Government May Suggest a Reorganization of Combine if It Does'nt Prosecute.

what mis develop."
According to reports from Washington the Government, if it does not take the case into court, will suggest a reorganization of the company.

THEY TOOK NO CHANCES.

MILWAUKEE, Aug 31.—The game between St. Paul and Milwaukee teams scheduled for to-day was played several agent by the New York Edison Com-THEY TOOK NO CHANCES.

O TELL TRUTH BEATTIE. 9 TAKEN FROM RIGGING OF SHIP AS SHE SINKS, WRECKED BY STORM

Crew of Four-Master From Bath, Me., Snatched From Death While Schooner Pounds Off the South Carolina Coast.

CAPTAIN SWEPT OVERBOARD, HANGS ALL NIGHT TO SPAR.

Horrors of Hunger, Thirst and Peril From Waves Told by Survivors, Here on Mohawk.

fathoms deep off Cape Romain, South Carolina, battered down by the great

IU LEAU INE WAT

Merchant in Brooklyn Said to Have Bought All the Trio's Loot.

Newark police officials are seeking a merchant who has a place in the Green-up the coast until Saturday, when she point section of Brooklyn, upon the was off Cape Romain, fifty miles north side him. In a moment his hair blazed and his clothes began to smoke.

Not knowing what had happened to Fisher, Ullman began shouting for help. Several firemen from Engine Company artistic entrance, and the puglist to Capt. Dodge, knowing he was in for the southers and court of the southers. ... Neblitt a paper mills superintendent.
... Settlet a paper mills superintendent.
... Neblitt a paper mills superintendent.
... Settlet a paper mills supe has always crossed the river upon their and fell on the ever rising seas, with invitation and bought whatever loot they the wind steadily hauling and increasacquired. Following this information, ing in ferocity. By daybrank Sunday immediately the men were arrested the the glass had fallen lower than the skippolice had one of them write to the per had seeen it in many years. Brooklyn man to come over to Newark Throughout the day the sea rose higher

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 21.—The denth-roll of the recent storm reached a total of seventeen here to-day when a force engaged in cleaning up debris.

According to the police, the wire was in Paul Beattle's hands, but he was certain Paul had a single-barrelled shotgun.

According to the police, the wire was in Edison light feed wire, carrying in the path of pedestrians since plan to nab the "fence."

Guarding against the contingency that the merchant may not accept an invitation to go over and be arrested, the gun he saw in Paul Beattle's hands, but he was certain Paul had a single-barrelled shotgun.

According to the police, the wire was in Edison light feed wire, carrying in the path of pedestrians since plan to nab the "fence."

Guarding against the contingency that the merchant may not accept an invitation to go over and be arrested, the gun he saw in Paul Beattle's hands, but he was certain Paul had a single-barrelled shotgun.

According to the police, the wire was in Edison light feed wire, carrying in the path of pedestrians since plan to nab the "fence."

Guarding against the contingency that the merchant may not accept an invitation to go over and be arrested, the gun he saw in Paul Beattle's hands, but no one knew it was "live," and so far as of Brooklyn to tatch the merchant may not accept an invitation to go over and be arrested. The merchant may not accept an invitation to go over and be arrested. The merchant may not accept an invitation to go over and be arrested. The merchant may not accept an invitation to go over and be arrested. The merchant was chart was the merchant and proposed in the court forms. At six o'clock Sunday evening the merchant may not accept an invitation to go over and be arrested. The merchant was chart was o'clock Sunday evening the merchant in the merchant may not accept an invitation to go over and to so over an and see that he does not escape.

The three men in the hands of the there was eight feet of water in the age, a private detective of No. 331 High treet, West Nutley. William Perm, nineteen years of age, Accorney General Wickersham this afternoon declined to affirm or deny persistent reports that the Government has about to take action against the Steel Trust.

The situation is such that I cannot make any situational at this time," said Mr. Wickersham. "I really can't say wearing articles.

Accorney General Wickersham this teenth avenue. The police claim that they have a configuration of the mon that they have a configuration of the follows she repeatedly attack heavily against the sandy bottom.

The chief victims of the raids were were dealers in furnishing goods and men's opened wider and Capt. Dodge, realizing the hopelessness of the fight or-

$1,500 Job for Croker's Son. Fire Commissioner Johnson to-day ancounced the appointment of Edward F. Croker jr., son of the former Fire Chief, to the post of Assistant Fire Marshal. Mate S. S. Southard, Second Mate Charles Norton, a steward, an engineer and four sailors.

Only one of the crew is missing, a Portuguese satior, known only to bar Saturday night. The rescued men hall from Bath, Me., home port of the wrecked schooner and her owners, the Gardner G. Deering Company. Capt. Dodge told the story of the wreck and rescue to an Evening reporter when the Mohawk docked to-SQUALLS QUICKLY KICK UP A HEAVY SEA. The Seevey put out from Tamps, Fla. with a cargo of phosphate Aug. 16. She met fair weather around the Keys and hold and still gaining William Monsky, twenty-two years of SO LOW IN WATER SHE STRUCK BOTTOM.

Low in the water, the schooner could pusilist, of No. D4 Waverly avenue, not rise to the seas, and began drag-nor rise to the seas, and began drag-ging. The starboard anchor was dropped. John Conklin, eighteen years of are, the ship still dragged, and when dawn ateamatter's helper of No. 197 Rix. broke over the furious waters' the lead such avenue showed only six fathoms under her. So take refuge in the rigging. The skipper ging. The male and engineer climbed to the mizzen top, and the remainder of the crew took refuge in the main and of one of the great waves to leeward. By daylight Monday the Seever